Art Unit: 2636

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

a. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Blount.

Blount discloses a warning light indicative of release of accelerator pedal comprising light member 18, wiring means coupling light 18 to accelerator pedal 24 (Fig. 2), including control device 22 for controlling actuation of light 18 through battery member 10.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

b. Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Blount in view of Knez (829).

Blount discloses an accelerator release warning light as set forth above, except for use of a generator controlling the warning light.

Knez teaches desirability of using generator 28 with spindle means 34 for controlling lights associated with a brake pedal switch 16. It would have been obvious to use a generator as suggested by Knez to control an accelerator pedal release warning light as disclosed by Blount, in order that the light could have had a distinctive indication, thus alerting a following driver to a potentially hazardous driving condition.

Regarding claim 6, Knez allows rotation of spindle in one direction, but a stop prevents movement in the other direction (col. 3, lines 41-52).

3. Claims 7-11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Hoffman, Knez (146) and Hoekman disclose vehicle warning light systems.

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Brent A Swarthout whose telephone number is 571-272-2979. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F from 6:30 to 4:00.
